

As an amateur radio operator for nearly 50 years, I have seen many changes in the license structure, most of which have resulted in a better service. I strongly support the ARRL proposal for restructuring. Although I hate to see the Morse code requirement eliminated for any class of license, I believe that this is the best compromise in retaining some Morse code while adhering to the WRC's latest ruling, and at the same time streamlining the license structure. ARS W4VTH (KN4CBX, W8KQL)